SUNDAY SCHOOL RALLY DAY

Children of South, Free, Christ and Baptist Churches Gather For Special Programs and Graduation Exercises Inaugurating Winter's Work.

Rally Day was observed at the Free, South, Christ and Baptist churches on Sunday with special exercises and a large attendance.

In the Free church, the exercises of the graduating class from the primary departments were held during the morning service of the church, when a class of nine girls and fifteen boys recited the 23rd Psalm, The Beatitudes, The Ten Commandments, The Apostles' Creed and the Lord's prayer. They all showed the careful training of Mrs. E. E. Perry, superintendent of the primary department.

The service opened with the procession led by the two vested choirs and followed by the children of the primary departments. They were seated in the front of the church and the service was especially for them. Rev. A. S. Wheelock preached only a children's sermon, telling them the story of the house with the golden windows.

Those who received diplomas were: Marion Burdette, Dorothy Fettes, Nan Gordon, Marion Haw, Margaret Holden, Barbara Hickok, Elizabeth Perry, Mary Rennie, Ruth Swenson, William Gorrie, Abbott Batchelder, Harry Gouck, Fred Hickok, Milton Jackson, Roland Shaw, James McCord, Fred Otis, William Paine, William Rennie, Alfred Robb, George Simpson, Bruce Valentine, Howard French, James Cairnie.

At the session of the church school at which there was a very large attendance Robert V. Deyernond led the singing. It was the first day of the attendance contest among the schools of the South, Free, West and Baptist churches.

South Church

The rally exercises for the Sunday school of the South church were held during the Sunday school hour. The superintendent, Eugene M. Weeks, used the program called "A Ten-Point Member." The "ten points" were printed on a cardboard wheel, and told what constituted a good Sunday school scholar. These were explained by different members of the school.

AUXILIARY CAFETERIA

Women Affiliated With American Legion Hold Supper and Entertainment For Benefit of Disabled Soldiers.

A cafeteria supper followed by whist and dancing was held in the Guild house last Friday evening under the auspices of the Women's Auxiliary to the American Legion.

Supper was served from 5.30 to 7.30, the menu including shrimp wiggle, meat and oyster patties with creamed potato, cold ham, potato salad, rolls, banana short cake, pie, ice cream, and coffee.

The following women served: trays and plates, Miss Margaret Rodger, Miss Annie Ness, and Mrs. William Valentine; coffee, Mrs. Minnie Rodger; salad, patties, etc.; Mrs. Frank M. Foster, Mrs. John Gamble, Mrs. Freeman Abbott, Mrs. Fred Cheney, Mrs. William J. Doherty; cashiers, Mrs. John Collins, Mrs. Thomas Platt; waitresses, Mrs. Lester Abbott, Miss Helen Dempsey, Mrs. Harold Gray.

At eight o'clock the floor was cleared for dancing. Buckley's orchestra furnishing the music. Bid whist was played at eight tables. A first prize of a $2.50 gold piece was awarded to Mrs. Malcolm B. McTernan and booty prize of a lump of coal to Mrs. Bailey of Beverly.

The affair was in charge of the captains of the various teams into which the Auxiliary has been divided, with Mrs. Fred G. Cheney as chairman. The women worked hard to make the evening a success and it was unfortunate that there was not a more generous patronage, although there was a fair number present to enjoy the good things to eat as well as the whist and dancing.

The members of the auxiliary wish to express their thanks to those who supported them in their efforts to raise funds to carry on their work among the disabled soldiers.

PLAN RAINBOW FETE

Dances Are in Active Rehearsal and Competent Committees on Various Tables Are Busily at Work.

October, the month set for the elaborate pageant and sale "The End of the Rainbow" to be given for the benefit of the Andover Guild has already arrived and as the appointed dates draw near the various committees are putting forth every effort to prepare unusually attractive articles to be sold at the various tables and a unique entertainment for every evening.

On Tuesday afternoon members of the November club who have charge of the Fancy Articles met at the home of Mrs. George F. French and worked industriously to fill the orders they have received for models which are to be sold at the bazaar. A fascinating array of chiffon bed jackets, crepe de chine, and Canton crepe negligees in many beautiful colors, black satin bridge table covers, and the more practical maid's aprons, traveling sets, and paper and twine holders were among the articles shown to prospective purchasers. The hand-woven bags in wool, mercerized material and silk, all from the loom of an Andover weaver, called forth many expressions of admiration. The models will be shown again next Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George French, 12 School street.

The members of the committee who are assisting Mrs. Horace H. Tyer, chairman, are Mrs. George L. Selden, Mrs. Frederic N. Chandler, Mrs. Gerard Chapin, Mrs. Fred H. Eaton, Mrs. C. W. Henry, Mrs. W. Dudley Yates, Mrs. Frederick M. Boyce, Mrs. Frank M. Benton, Mrs. George F. French, Miss Frances E. Aldred, Miss Amelia Shapleigh, Miss Kate P. Jenkins, Miss Mary E. Bancroft, and Mrs. T. Dennis Thomson.

Plans for an Andover Chamber of Commerce were discussed at a meeting held last evening in the rooms of the Andover club and attended by fifty representative business men. Temporary officers for the proposed organization were elected.

Donald Robey, secretary of Wakefield's thriving Chamber of Commerce, introduced by W. Dudley Yates, told of what had been accomplished in Wakefield and outlined plans for a similar organization in Andover.

In Wakefield, where the Chamber has been functioning scarcely six months, the tax rate has been reduced $2.00; the State has been induced to seriously consider taking over the maintenance of the Lakeside road; and a tract of land has been purchased for a war memorial besides lesser services rendered such as restraining itinerant solicitors and relieving merchants of the burden of advertising in publications with one issue, such as entertainment programs, etc. A planning board which is drawing up a zoning ordinance regulating the building of filling stations and one-story stores in unsuitable places is also contributing to the best interests of the community.

The program for the work of the Wakefield Chamber of Commerce was made up from material gathered from answers to a questionnaire including the query "What are the prime needs of Wakefield?" A public forum is now held once a month for the discussion of these needs.

The movement was launched with a mammoth $5,000 Fourth of July celebration which gave the town publicity throughout the country.

The question of dues and the method of operation in Andover were discussed by Mr. Robey. He suggested a possible income of $3500 which might be reduced if a paid secretary and permanent headquarters were not maintained. He disapproved of a multiplicity of standing committees but favored a board of directors as a legislative body, chosen by the members, and supported

LAWRENCE COLONIAL THEATRE

Next week will find Ye Colonial Players at the Colonial theatre in Lawrence offering one of the biggest "thrill plays" of the present century. It is "The Seventh Guest," a mystery play that has long runs in both New York and in Chicago and which critics have compared very favorably with "The Bat," now to be seen in Boston, and "The Cat and the Canary."

The play begins with a party of young people who have gone to a haunted house for the purpose of organizing an order that will prove to the world that there are no such things as ghosts and spirits. They have not been in the building fifteen minutes before things begin to happen and the first they knew all of them are convinced that there are ghosts and that most of them are in the house with them.

Many stage tricks are used in this production to promote the ghostly atmosphere and this condition, on top of the remarkable mystery that the authors have created, furnishes one of the best entertainments that can be found.

The parts are well suited to Ye Colonial Players, who are winning many friends by their splendid performances of really good shows. Director Bernard Stee and Manager Charles E. Cook are giving this community, this year, a brand of stock production that is above the average, and they deserve hearty support in the undertaking. Many Andover people are noted in the audience, both afternoon and evening, showing that the people of this town appreciate what is being done for them. Everyone is sure to find "The Seventh Guest" a highly enjoyable entertainment. Next week being Columbus holiday week, there will be an extra matinee on Thursday, Columbus day, with no advance in usual matinee prices.

HOLLIS STREET

What is regarded as one of the most delightful and entertaining comedies seen in Boston for many seasons is "Nice People," starring Francine Larrimore, which is now in its third week at the Hollis Street Theatre Boston, where it is repeating the phenomenal success it enjoyed in New York and later in Chicago.

This delightful comedy from the pen of Rachel Crothers is written in her best vein, and is an arraignment of the carelessness of the so-called "smart set," who allow their daughters to smoke, drink cocktails, and dance all night at cabarets without chaperones. It depicts the adventures of one "Teddy" Gloucester, the leader of a coterie of these "nice people," who deems herself quite powerful enough to defy all the old rules of propriety. This spoiled, high-spirited, self-willed daughter of wealth continues on her jazy downy path and plunges into an escapade that threatens to cut her off from her family and friends forever. Her eyes are finally opened by a sincere young man who stakes his all on winning her love. How she extricates herself from this dilemma and finds love and happiness in her regeneration, is told in a succession of scenes never flagging in humor.

Miss Larrimore has proved one of the daintiest, brightest little comedienne of the Boston has seen in a generation. What is more, the young lady can act. She is an artist, finished to the tips of her dainty fingers. Her impersonation of "Teddy" is a piece of artistry that has placed this young actress in the front rank of our American stars and is as splendid as it is rare. Miss Larrimore's supporting company is an excellent one, every member of it being selected with reference to his or her fitness for the character assigned.

Andover Girl to Teach in Maine Hospital

Miss Mary Kierstead, well-known to many Andover people, a daughter of Charles Kierstead of Morton street has been visiting her sister, Edith, at Trenton, New Jersey. While there a day was spent in Philadelphia sight-seeing. This week she passed through Andover en route for Woodford, Maine, where she has accepted a position as instructor in the Theory and Practice of Nursing, at St. Barnabas hospital. Miss Kierstead is a graduate of the Springfield Hospital Training school for nurses and carries to her new position a practical working knowledge of her subject beside a genuine love for her chosen profession. Her many friends wish her success.

The Ten-Point member "Attends Regularly," "Comes on Time," "Contributes Weekly," "Studies the Lesson," "Is Attentive," "Seeks New Members," "Is Friendly," "Reads the Bible Daily," "Prays for Himself and others," "Attends Church."

There was a large sized congregation at the service which was especially interesting. Miss Edna Lawrence sang a solo.

Christ Church

At the Christ church a very interesting talk was given by Miss Helen Walker who told of her experiences this summer in Labrador where she was a teacher under the direction of Dr. Wilfred Grenfell.

Miss Walker told of her journey saying that it was a hard trip on account of the weather. She was put in charge of a school of 11 pupils who had very solemn faces, not knowing the meaning of the word play. They knew what Christmas was but Easter was King George's birthday to them.

Miss Walker's story was very touching as she described the desolate life of these Labrador people.

Each member of the Sunday school promised to send a picture postcard to one of the children there. The regular session of the school ended the services.

Baptist Church

There was a good attendance at the Bible School of the Baptist church. The program was of a social nature, the Bible study being omitted. Hymns, responsive and concert Bible reading, and prayer comprised the opening exercises of the encouraging session.

Then came the intensely interesting roll calls and promotions of the lowest grades, when the audience was introduced to many little tots from a wee babe in its mother's arms, to a long row of bright-eyed youngsters eager to learn. Four new cradle-rollers were added to the school. Mr. Gilbert addressed a few words to the row of children on the platform, stressing the importance of learning about Jesus Christ and His great teachings.

Certificates were given the babies who are in the cradle roll and diplomas given to the graduates from the cradle roll to the beginner's class who were Bertha Bantley, Frank Smith, William Ward and Dorothy Ward. There who graduated from the beginners to the primary class were also presented certificates and those who received these were Bernice Fraize, Marion Herbert, Aubrey Ward, Stanley Norton and Lina Hazelton.

Rev. C. W. Bartlett spoke briefly on the significance of education, that the biggest business in all the world is living, and that the study of the Bible shows us how to live. The eight months' contest among the Free, South, and Baptist schools for the highest percentage of attendance began at this session. Each school contributes $10.00 towards a prize, to be used in sending a boy and a girl to Camp Andover next summer. The fortunate ones will be selected by a committee from the winning school.

The closing part of the program was a pleasant and novel plan, of march and counter-march, by which all persons were given opportunity to meet everyone in attendance at the rally.

One More Barrier Down

President Harding signed September 22nd an act of Congress which removes the largest single discrimination against women that remained after the passage of the Suffrage Amendment. It provides that hereafter a woman shall hold her citizenship in her own right and not as a possible result of marriage. Thus another milestone is passed in the long road toward freedom for women.

A married woman in the United States has heretofore taken in marriage, not only her husband, but his citizenship status. If a native born and marrying a Russian, a Greek or any other nationality, she became of that race the moment she signed the marriage register; on the other hand, if a woman whether a civilized Englishwoman or a Zulu Islander, married a native American, she became by that act a citizen of his country.

A woman married to an alien could become a citizen only through her husband's naturalization. His naturalization automatically made her a citizen whether she wanted to be one or not.

With the signing of the act, a few strokes of the pen, which has now through the graciousness of the President become the precious possession of Mrs. Maud Wood Park, all this unjust discrimination vanishes and women are as men are, free to be citizens, to so remain, and with the right to renounce civil status exactly as men are.

The bill which reached the President after a struggle of over two years led by the National League of Women Voters directed by its president, Mrs. Park, was the Cable Bill. First passed by the House July 21st, it was substituted in the Senate for the Curtis Bill in order to avoid delay and was passed in the Senate September 9th, without objection and became the law of the land September 22nd.

The measure is not retroactive. It provides, however, for American women who have lost their citizenship through marriage, a simplified and shortened method of naturalization.

The Past Year at The Andover Guild

Early in December last, the Guild commenced its winter season with a large registration of our young people, nearly three hundred.

The new superintendent, Miss Vivian Taylor, proved herself a most efficient leader as was shown by the continued unflagging interest of all classes to the very end of the season in April.

She was ably assisted by Harry Pratt, trained gymnasium instructor, who had charge of all boys and young men.

Classes for grammar school boys, high school boys and young men, four classes for girls, a new class for young ladies from the business offices of the town, and the class for business men; all these kept the available time each week well filled. On Wednesday evenings either the Boy Scouts, Harry G. Tyler, Scout Master, or the X. B. K. of the four churches made good use of the rooms.

On Saturday evenings the young people much enjoyed the dances in the gymnasium with orchestra music. This was indicated by the fact that all expenses for these were fully covered without drawing from the general funds.

For all the classes the directors have required only such small fees as could well be paid by any, so that all might receive as much benefit as possible.

Some of the earlier activities have been curtailed the past few years of business depression. The directors have recognized the desirability of continuing the opportunity for physical training under the competent instructors, as leading educators realize that proper physical as much as mental development is an essential for the well-being of those who are to enter their life's real work fully equipped.

The income from the various classes, rentals, and annual exhibition amounted to nearly $1000. Subscriptions from our townspeople of $1500 gave a total of about $300 less than actual current expenses.

In addition to their regular subscriptions Alfred Ripley and Wm. M. Wood generously contributed $500 for the painting of both buildings. Miss Anna Kuhn as chairman of a most willing band of ladies gave to the Guild the proceeds of the Rummage Sale, about $400, for enlivening and for the decoration and furnishing of a room for the girls, who will much appreciate its comfort.

The Guild needs some more regular contributors. It has no endowment, but depends upon annual solicitation. Ask our young folks if they need the Guild. Then show your regard for their welfare by sending your contributions to F. S. Boutwell, Treasurer, Andover Savings Bank. The maintenance and extension of the work of this community institution merits the support of all our townspeople. Become a member. It is easy, and it is well worth your attention.

Rebekahs Hold Successful Get-Together Night

"Get-Together" Night was observed by Indian Ridge Rebekah lodge I. O. O. F. Monday in Odd Fellows hall. Nearly 100 members were present and a very interesting program was rendered following the business session which was in charge of Mrs. Samuel Wormald, Noble Grand.

The concert was given wholly by local talent nearly all of which belongs to Rebekah circles and was under the direction of Mrs. William Faulkner and Mrs. Donald D. Laurie. Each performer was given well deserved encores. The program included vocal solos by Miss Irene Valentine, piano solos by Miss Emma Stevens and Miss Evelyn Meyers; piano duet by Misses Stevens and Meyers; vocal duet by Misses Etta Brown and Miss Sadie MacLeish; recitations by Miss Emma Stevens and readings by Miss Sadie Hobbs. A most enjoyable number was the "Masquerade Dance" given very gracefully in costume by Misses Etta Brown, Jean MacLeish and Annie Ness. The entertainment was a great success. Miss Jean E. Dundas was an efficient accompanist.

Following the entertainment refreshments were served by Miss Grace Higgins, Miss Bertha Higgins, Mrs. William Faulkner, Mrs. Leonard Saunders, Mrs. Frank M. Smith and Miss David Cuthbert.

Held Blameless for Barba's Death

William Graustein of 19 Bowdoin street, Cambridge, was given a clean bill by Judge Colver J. Stone at an inquest held Monday afternoon in the local police court room, and relieved of all responsibility in causing the death of Giuseppe Barba of Wakefield on the evening of September 8. Judge Stone after hearing many witnesses and Graustein's story, gave his opinion that Barba met his death through his own carelessness.

Mr. Graustein was the unfortunate victim of circumstances. Driving his auto toward Boston, he saw a man stagger across the street car tracks and as Graustein passed him, the man struck his head on the rail. Mr. Graustein stopped his car in an instant and finding the man badly injured, placed him in his auto and started for the Lawrence General hospital.

Punchard Dance

The first of the dancing parties of the Punchard scholars was held Friday evening in Punchard hall, with a good attendance. Music was furnished by Dwyer's orchestra. The matrons were Mrs. Mary Dalton, Mrs. J. Ashley Barnes, Mrs. Chase and Miss Faunce, Miss Dunn, Miss Smith and Miss Sands of the faculty.

Punch was served by Virginia Ramsdell, Helen Yunggebauer and Malcolm Ruhl.

An interesting feature connected with the Auxiliary Cafeteria was an advertising of the affair in the afternoon. Through the kindness of Miss P. Ham, seven stalwart lads from her class volunteered to parade the streets carrying The Colors, a banner with the announcement artistically arranged by Miss Alice Jenkins, a bugler, and a drummer.

The names of these patriotic boys who braved the extreme heat of the afternoon hearing themselves with real soldier like dignity follow: William Bradford, George Ripley, Edward Bradford, Irving Whitcomb, Joseph Marland, Howard Trot, Phillip Clements.

Celebrated First Mass

St. Augustine's church was crowded Sunday morning at 10.30 when Rev. Frank D. Roman, a former Andover boy, celebrated his first mass after his ordination at Villanova college a week ago.

Assisting at the mass were Rev. F. S. Riordan of St. Lawrence church, Lawrence, who preached the sermon, Rev. W. W. Donovan, of Schaghticoke, N. Y., was deacon and Rev. Fr. Hopkins of Villanova college subdeacon. The master of ceremonies was Rev. Philip J. Colgan of Lawrence. Mozart's Twelfth Mass was played by the organist, Miss Annie C. Donovan.

Following the service Father Roman greeted many of his Andover friends, who congratulated him on his chosen work.

Fr. Roman was also celebrant at the 7.30 vespers and was assisted by Rev. William W. Donovan as deacon and Rev. P. J. Campbell, as sub deacon. Rev. T. J. Fogarty was master of ceremonies.

Rev. Fr. Roman was born in Andover and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Roman of Morton street. He received his early education in the local schools and about 13 years ago entered Villanova. Graduating with high honors he immediately started his theological studies in the monastery of the Augustinian Fathers at Villanova and was one of seven other young men ordained to the priesthood Sunday, September 24 at Villanova by His Eminence Cardinal Dougherty D. D. Archbishop of Philadelphia.

Fr. Roman is the third Andover boy in three years to be ordained to the priesthood. The others were Rev. Francis Remmes and Rev. Walter Remmes, both of whom were ordained in St. Augustine's. All three said their first mass in the church of their boyhood.

Two Lectures Planned for Women Voters

Two interesting lectures have been arranged by the League of Women Voters for the women of Andover. They will be open to the public and no admission will be charged.

On Monday evening, October 23, Mrs. Truworthy White, publicity chairman for the State League, will be the speaker and on Wednesday evening, November 1, Miss Florence Lacombe, a successful Boston architect, will speak on the Referenda.

Those who have signified their intention of joining the League may send the membership fee of fifty cents to Mrs. John A. Morrill, 89 Chestnut street.

Zinnia Tea for Andover Guild

The second tea for the benefit of the Andover Guild was held at the home of Miss MacKown, Main street, on Wednesday with Mrs. George Ingram of Salem street as hostess.

Miss Fannie Davis of North Andover, for many years superintendent of the Andover Guild, gave a talk on the work carried on there for the young people of Andover. Her talk enlivened with stories of the happenings during the time she was superintendent was very entertaining as well as illuminating to those who were not familiar with the purposes of the Guild.

Miss Davis spoke of the importance of such an institution in an industrial community like Andover where there is great need of systematic physical training and opportunities for recreation. Addressing the guests she spoke of the advantages of competing successfully with the attractions of Lawrence movies and Lawrence dance halls. The guild in non-sectarian and is also able to reach many young people who are not reached by the churches. The speaker felt that the Guild should be backed by everyone in the community as it will serve everyone in the community.

The assembly room on the second floor of the Guild house which was the scene of Red Cross work in war time has recently been partially re-decorated and refurbished through the generosity of a few friends of the Guild, making an attractive place where it is planned to have the girls and their mothers meet on Sunday afternoons for social hours to listen to speakers on various subjects. The corresponding room on the first floor is the favorite haunt of the younger boys who are devotees of lotto, checkers and pool. Miss Davis also spoke of the plans for self maintenance including annual dues and class dues by means of which the boys and girls contribute a substantial sum annually to the running expenses. The method by which the problems of the Saturday night dance were solved by a committee of the boys and girls themselves who fixed a "Guild Standard" made an interesting story.

Tea was poured by Mrs. Lester E. Lynde and Mrs. Eben A. Baldwin, assisted by Mrs. George Dick, Mrs. Arthur Bliss Jr., and Mrs. Philip Hardy.

Besides a representative gathering of Andover women the following out-of-town guests were noted: Miss Aimee Sears for many years a worker at the International Institute in Lawrence, Mrs. Charles H. Cutler of Waban who has been spending the week with her mother Mrs. George Ripley of Central street, Mrs. Albert Manning of Boston who is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. John L. Phillips, and Mrs. Bernard Steele, playing under the stage name of Maude Blair with the stock company at the Colonial theatre in Lawrence who is well-known to many Andover patrons of the theatre.

The house was decorated with garden flowers including a bright array of zinnias. These were generously contributed from the gardens of Mrs. John T. Mercer, Mrs. Frank H. Paige, Mrs. Mary Adams, Mrs. James C. Sawyer, Mrs. William H. Jaquith 2nd, Mrs. George Dick, Miss Sarah MacKown, Mrs. Winfield B. Knowlton, and Mrs. M. E. Gutterson.

The attractive posters advertising the tea were from the brush of Miss Alice Jenkins. A third tea will be held next Wednesday afternoon, October 11, with decorations of marigolds.

Doherty and Yanks Win

The Dohertys took four points from the Shawheens and the Yanks three points from the Braves in the Duck Pin league games rolled Monday night on the Essex street alleys.

Johnny Keith and Pete Cairnie were in fine form for the champion Dohertys and both hit over 300. Cairnie hit 116 for the high single. Watt also topped them over and totalled 280.

Jimmy Ross was high roller in the Braves-Yanks bout with 296. Henderson hit 113 for high single and 283 for a total.

Challenge for Sunday School Scholars

The Free Church Sunday school has challenged the other Protestant Sunday schools of the town to a contest in attendance, and the Baptist, South and West schools have all accepted the challenge. Each school will contribute $10 toward a prize and this money will be used to send one boy and one girl to Camp Andover at Pompey Pond for two weeks next summer. The girl and boy will be selected by a committee from the Sunday school that wins in the contest. A second prize will be given to that class which has the highest percentage in attendance through the year regardless of what school wins the first prize.

Christ Church Notes

The first meeting of the Woman's Guild, for the winter season, will be held in the Parish House on Thursday at 2.30 o'clock. It is expected that Mrs. George Dick will give her report of the Conference held at Concord, N. H. Plans for the season's work will be outlined. Tea will be served.

At the Altar Guild meeting, held with Mrs. Odlin last Friday, it was decided that the Guild would become an annual contributing member of the group of people or societies in all parts of the country which will raise the fund towards completing the splendid national cathedral in Washington, D. C. Officers of Phillips Brooks Chapter elected last week are: president, A. Swenson; vice president, J. Carne; secretary, J. Schofield; treasurer, G. McCollum.

The Church School listened to an interesting address by Miss Helen Walker last Sunday. The children in Newfoundland, in the remote part where she went, among other things have no pictures. Each class in the church school will send picture postals to the various members, 16 in number, of the classes in the school which Miss Walker taught this summer.

Plans are Made for Activities of Smith and Dove Girls Club

A meeting of the executive committee of the Smith and Dove Girls club was held in the club rooms Monday evening, and it was voted to hold the first meeting of the club on October 17, at which time vacation in offices will be filled. It was also planned to have refreshments on that date with dancing to follow.

Plans for a Hallowe'en party will also be discussed at that time.

Clan Johnston Whist Tournament

The first round in the Clan Johnston whist tournament will be played tonight in Gasfield hall following the regular meeting at 7.30. The draw is as follows:

Where Your Money Goes

Our waste of $5 per capita per annum means that every man, woman and child pays $5 a year for fire waste. That means that the man with the average family, his wife and three children — a family of five — pays $25 a year fire tax. The United States Government in its report adds to this fire waste the cost of maintaining fire departments, which is as much more. This means $50 a year to the average family. Now, if on some blue Monday in every year a representative of the Government were to come around and ask us each for our check for $50 to pay our share of the national carelessness, then we should realize what we pay. But we do not realize that we pay it, because that tax is indirect. The big manufacturers and the big merchants know that this fire expense is a tax. They equip their premises with automatic sprinklers. They put in protective apparatus. They get the lowest insurance rate they can because it helps them to compete; but the man in the street, the ordinary man, does not know how this fire waste is paid. Take wool, for example. Wool in the warehouse is insured — that is a tax. It is insured in transportation, and there it pays a fire tax. It is insured in the textile factory where it is worked up into cloth. It is insured in the clothing store, insured in the tailor shop, in the department store; and all the way along this fire tax is added to the cost, and when you buy a coat, you pay it. Every stock of goods that is insured carries this tax, and it is passed along to the ultimate consumer. The masses do not know that they pay it. They do not realize that when they buy a hat, or a pair of shoes, or a suit of clothes, or anything which goes through the regular channels of industry, — production, distribution and exchange, — they pay a tax. Not realizing it, they are indifferent to fire. They think the fire loss does not affect them. — From "A Campaign to Prevent Fire," National Fire Protection Association.

Fire Prevention Day will be observed in Andover next Monday. The writer urges the co-operation of every member of the community in helping to prevent, not only that day but every day, the vast loss due to fires in our midst and in the whole country.

You can help by cleaning up piles of rubbish or leaves near the house, by finding metal receptacles for the oily mop that cleans and polishes the floor and the oily rags that are used on the furniture. One of the greatest fire dangers in the world, and probably one of the commonest as well, is the pile of old newspapers or magazines stored in an attic, shed, or cellar. A carelessly thrown match, a defective heating device, careless use of electricity, improper disposal of ashes, are only a few of the many ways in which we all tempt fire with its destruction of lives and property.

All over the land today there is a great movement in behalf of fire prevention. Fire Prevention Day is now declared by the governors of most states and by the mayors of many large cities. Slowly but surely our fellow countrymen are opening their eyes to the fact that carelessness about fire hazards is a national vice from which our land must be freed if it is to become truly safe and prosperous. Let us see to it that we as individuals and our town as a part of this great American Nation shall do our part in this forward movement.

Legion Auxiliary to Assist at State Fair

At the regular meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary to the American Legion held last night with Mrs. Fred G. Cheney presiding reports were heard from various committees and plans discussed for the Legion state fair which is to be held in Boston the latter part of November.

Mrs. Freeman Abbott reported for the convention held in Boston on September 21, 22 and 23, and Mrs. Harry Gouck reported for the cafeteria supper held last Friday. The supper was deemed reasonably successful considering it was the first venture of the sort which the Auxiliary has undertaken. A vote of thanks was extended to the Guild for the use of their rooms and to the Woman's Relief corps for their cooperation.

Mrs. McCurdy reported for the committee which recently entertained the disabled soldiers at Danvers and a vote of thanks was extended to Stephen Gillard through whose efforts an orchestra was obtained to contribute to the entertainment.

Mrs. Jessie M. Miller of Poor street was received as a new member.

The local auxiliary will assist the other women of Essex county who have charge of the French table at the Legion state fair to be held in Boston next month. A French nurse who served during the war and is now in this country is an active worker for the table and has arranged for the importation of many interesting articles. The contribution of the local auxiliary will be towels.

It was announced that the latest report from the society's treasurer, Miss Sarah Myatt, who recently underwent an operation at the Lawrence hospital, is that she is rapidly improving.

A finance committee was appointed with the following members: Mrs. Harry Gouck, Mrs. Joseph Hilton and Mrs. William Doherty.

Refreshments of doughnuts, cider and cheese were served by Mrs. M. S. McCurdy, Mrs. Harry Gouck and Mrs. Joseph Hilton.

Holiday Shoot to be Held on Columbus Day

Members of the Haverhill, Lawrence and Lowell Fish and Game clubs have been invited by the local club to participate in a Shoot to be held on Brothers Field, October 12, beginning at 9 a.m.

The event will be a 50-bird handicap. Ammunition will be at the grounds and prizes will be awarded.

"Come and take away a prize — if you can," says the cordial invitation of the committee which consists of L. C. Coates, J. I. Pitman, B. F. Hatch and W. H. Foster.

School Board Authorizes Assistant in Manual Arts

The school committee at its meeting Tuesday night in the Pynchard building voted to engage an assistant to Carl M. Gahan in the department of manual arts. The new teacher will be selected by the teachers committee and Superintendent Sanborn. Miss Dorothy Isabel McCaffrey was elected assistant teacher in the North school.

A branch of the Richardson School was opened in Post Office hall Shawheen Village, on Monday morning with Miss Ethel Anderson in charge. The pupils are, for the most part, members of the first grade. Additional members of the first grade are receiving instruction at the Richardson building under Mrs. Margaret Kimball.

The total enrollment in the public schools exceeds that of last year at this time by 89, and it is probable that the figures will be increased to 100 before the end of the month. The gain in Shawheen Village is 26.

The new room for retarded pupils required by the state has been opened in the central schools with 17 pupils in attendance. The room is in charge of Miss Louise M. Stearns.

The budget for September was as follows:
General expense $458.54
Expenses of instruction 3610.96
Textbooks 1011.81
Expenses of operation 791.02
Miscellaneous 145.02
Maintenance 1372.45
Auxiliary agencies 575.86
New equipment 84.00
Totals 8049.66

Book Exhibit at South Church

Interior decorations play an important part in modern life. Things in a house must be useful and enduring but also beautiful in line and color and the whole effect harmonious. We would have our houses perfect, — but we do not consider as carefully the interior decorations of the minds of the family. Every cheap thing of the moment is crowded in regardless of effect, and fine new things and antiques of rare beauty, which need no mending nor repolishing are left out.

Come to the South Church Wednesday, October 11, either afternoon or evening and learn some ways of furnishing the mind. The Religious Books exhibit will contain books for the young and old, the lively and the sedate.

It is worse luck to look in a dark closet with a match than to see the new moon over your left shoulder.

Andover Golf Tournament Next Tuesday

There will be 78 players in the Andover Golf Tournament to be held at the Merrimack Valley Country Club on Tuesday, which exceeds by 24 the number that played last year. At a meeting held last evening the players were paired, handicaps adjusted and assignments made to the two teams, which will be captained by H. Bradford Lewis and J. F. O'Connell, following the plan adopted last year.

This year the committee has set aside two cups for the two best gross scores made by those with a handicap of 14 or over. The other prizes will be for the first and second gross and the first and second net. A special prize will be awarded for the town golf champion, the four players with the lowest gross scores playing on at match play as soon as possible after the Tuesday tournament to determine the winner. As last year, a player can have but one prize except in the case of the championship trophy being won by a player who might previously have won a gross or net prize.

Owing to the fewer hours of daylight the committee has found it necessary to urge as many as possible to play in the forenoon and assignments of starting time have been made beginning at 9.30 o'clock. There is still some open time in the forenoon to which time one or two matches now assigned for afternoon may be transferred by request to the chairman or secretary.

Prof. Charles H. Forbes will act as tournament director and Edward Brooks as tournament treasurer. The fee has been set at $3.50, which includes tournament charge and the dinner to be held at 6 o'clock in the evening. At the dinner there will be singing and a general good time, during which the prizes will be awarded.

In the event that the weather outlook on the morning of the tournament is forbidding, players may call the operator at the Tyler Rubber Company to learn whether a postponement is planned. It is further suggested by the committee that players who can arrange to be at the first tee well before their scheduled playing time, probably can get away to a much earlier start than they expected.

The following is the list of players, their handicaps and time for starting play.

Will Be Saleswoman for One Day

Mrs. J. Harry Kidder of Phillips street is one of the prominent women of various communities who has been asked to assist at a three day sale generously arranged by "Jays," the well-known woman's shop on Temple Place, Boston, for the benefit of the Boston Children's hospital.

Twenty percent of all sales made on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, October 9, 10 and 11 will be turned over to the children's hospital. Mrs. Kidder will be glad to welcome Andover shoppers on Tuesday afternoon and see that their needs are supplied. Similar sales for charity at the Galleries Lafayette in Paris, Macy's in New York, and other stores in large cities, have met with marked success. Among the well-known women who will assist at the sale at Jays are Mrs. Curtis Guild, Mrs. Nathaniel Thayer and Mrs. George Fearing.

Andover Homes Purchased

Three interesting transfers of real estate has taken place this week. The Chandler house at 238 Main street, recently occupied by Fred H. Smith, has been purchased by Dr. Horace D. Bloombergh of Warwick street, Shawheen Village. Mr. and Mrs. Smith and family will move next week into the newly renovated house on the Pearson farm now owned by Phillips academy.

The house at 41 Salem street, owned by Mrs. Thomas J. Biery has been purchased by Archie N. Frost of Lawrence, clerk of the Superior Court in Essex county. Mr. and Mrs. Biery with their family will move to 45 Salem street, the house formerly occupied by Miss Harriet L. Erving which they have purchased from Mr. and Mrs. Abbott Erving.

Won Prizes at Brockton Fair

Omar P. Chase was an exhibitor at the Brockton Fair and his Golden Wyandottes, which have ranked at the top in many years, again carried off many ribbons. Each bird exhibited being a prize winner. Mr. Chase's ribbons this year were: Cock 1st; hen 2nd; cockerel, 1st pullet 1st, 2nd and 4th.

Obituary

JOHN T. BAKER

John T. Baker, one of the oldest residents of North Andover, died last Friday evening at the family home, 22 Suffolk street, at the age of 85 years. He was born in Nova Scotia but had made his home in this vicinity for the past 31 years.

He leaves to mourn his loss one son, George T. Baker of Lawrence, three daughters, Mrs. Harriet E. Salthouse, Mrs. W. D. Currier of Andover and Mrs. Arthur Peck of North Andover.

The funeral was held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the late home. Rev. George F. Beecher conducted the services. The burial was in Ridgewood cemetery, North Andover.

Helping Hand Elect Officers

The Helping Hand Society of the Free church held its annual meeting Tuesday afternoon in the Ladies parlor and elected officers for the ensuing year. Mrs. Joshua Paine who has been president for eight years declined to serve again, and Mrs. Robert Nicoll will direct the society this year.

The other officers chosen were: Mrs. Samuel R. Harris, vice president; Mrs. Charles Mayer, secretary; Mrs. William Morrissey, Mrs. Alexander MacKenzie, Mrs. Sidney Batchelder, directresses; Mrs. Gilbert Caldwell, Mrs. G. A. Christie, Mrs. Robert Low, visiting committee; Mrs. Grace Lake, collector.

A very interesting report of the year's work was given by Mrs. Charles Mayer, secretary. Plans were made for another successful season.

A crack in your chimney is a sure sign that you are going to move.

Andover Mother's Club Activities

The Andover Mother's club held its first meeting of the fall season in Punched hall Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Charles S. Buchanan, president in charge.

The annual convention of the Parent-Teacher's association being held at Goussier this week was discussed and the following members appointed to attending the session today: Mrs. Charles S. Buchanan, Mrs. Otis Keith, Mrs. R. W. Coleman, Mrs. Thomas W. Platt, Mrs. Edward Cole, Mrs. James Walker.

Fall activities were talked over and a Thanksgiving sale will be held. The club voted to hold a Halloween party in Punched hall probably on Tuesday evening, October 24. In an effort to increase the membership each member will be privileged to bring as guests three mothers not now members of the club. The committees appointed were: Refreshments, Mrs. Thomas W. Platt, Mrs. John A. Collins, Mrs. Otis Keith, Mrs. Frank M. Foster; favors, Mrs. Alexander Crockett, Mrs. R. W. Coleman; entertainment, Mrs. B. Frank Hatch, Mrs. James Walker, Mrs. William Waycott and Mrs. Edward Cole.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Alexander Crockett, Mrs. B. Frank Hatch and Mrs. William Waycott.

Rifle Range in New Location

The work on the new club house for the Andover Fish and Game association which was being done on Brothers field, has been stopped, as the trustees of the Phillips Academy, who own the property have notified the club that they will have to take over the field for the school.

A suggested location for the new clubhouse for the rifle range is the hill on Morton street on other Phillips Academy property, and if this place is satisfactory, the clubhouse will be built there.

LOCAL NEWS NOTES

If you have a pile of rubbish in your cellar, it indicates a crowd of people are coming to your house.

James Davidson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Davidson of Ridge street, is recovering from an attack of scarlet fever.

James Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Thompson of Ridge street is convalescing at the Lawrence General hospital.

Miss Sarah Myatt is reported recovering rapidly at the Lawrence General hospital where she underwent an operation.

William Rea, who has been seriously ill for several weeks with rheumatic fever has recovered and has resumed his duties at the Central Fire Station.

H. F. Chase, athletic outfitter has supplied the Punched hall football team with new uniforms. The colors of the sweaters and stockings are black and orange.

Fred A. Eldred, magician of Springfield will furnish the entertainment in Punched hall on Oct. 11, the funds of which will go toward the Athletic Association treasury. The public is invited at a nominal fee.

At the regular meeting of the Women's Relief Corps held Tuesday evening it was voted to hold a public baked bean supper with salads in G. A. R. hall on October 21. This will be the first of a series of suppers and they are always popular with the townspeople.

Among those registered at the North Middlesex Fair which is being held in Lowell this week are the following from West Andover with their exhibits: Arthur Maddocks; peppers; John Henderson, apples; Edward Boutwell, apples; Chester Boutwell, peaches and apples; Miss Alice Flint, peppers, apples and flowers; Louis Boutwell, crab apples; August Johnson, turnips; Hood farm, beets and squash; Shattuck farm, potatoes.

Work on North Main Street to Begin Next Week

The steam shovels belonging to the McDonough construction company moved to Shawheen Village last night and work on the drainage system for the new highway between Stimpson's bridge and the Lawrence line will begin in earnest on Monday morning. This will include the laying of drains and the building of catchbasins.

It is doubtful whether or not the construction of the road itself will be undertaken this season.

Police Court Notes

A session of Police court was held Friday afternoon before Judge Colver J. Stone and a number of offenders of the automobile laws were present to answer charges preferred against them. Several of the cases were placed on file while others were fined as follows: John Jones, Portland street, Lawrence, $10; William Stevenson, Lawrence, $10; Frank Daville, Haverhill, $10; Thorndike Hillton, Andover, for overspeeding, $15; Pierce Dean, Quincy, $5; Edson Forbes, Allston, $15, appealed; Joseph Parker, Malden, $10; Thomas McDonough, Andover, $5; Kirk Batchelder, Andover, $15, appealed; James Powers, for drunkenness, $2; Alexander Hicks, Gainsborough, N. J., for larceny, $15, and on non-payment of the fine was taken to the Lawrence jail; Isador Gordon, $10, appealed.

At a session of police court held Monday Louis Kinderlin of 23 Bruce street Lawrence was fined $25 for operating an automobile without a license.

Prohibition Officer Roberts in Andover

Prohibition Officer J. Percy Roberts was in Andover on Tuesday and himself examined witnesses at the hearing before Judge Stone concerning the alleged illegal keeping of beer at the cattle auction held September 18 at the Hood farm.

There was no evidence to prove that liquor of any sort had been offered for sale nor has the exact nature of the contents of the barrel been determined which was seized on the premises. The case was dismissed.

The Stone Age existed in British Columbia up until as late as a century ago, according to prominent archaeologists who have been exploring old community sites, mounds and graves along the coast and the interior. Stone and bone tools were in common use when white explorers visited the North Pacific, although copper and iron were found almost everywhere. Stone hammers and axes discovered are almost identical with the tools of the neolithic man found in Europe. Old shell mounds on the Fraser and Thompson rivers reveal many things formerly used by man of the stone age.

A $3,000,000 temple is to be erected in Ste. Anne de Beaupre, Quebec, to replace the one destroyed. A monastery costing $500,000 will also be built for the Redemptorist fathers.

BUSINESS MEN ORGANIZE

by a large and active membership, composed of both men and women. Plural membership dues paid by manufacturing concerns at an approximate rate of 50 cents for each employee were also suggested as substantial aids to the movement.

John F. O'Connell of the O'Connell-Ingalls Advertising Agency, Boston, was then introduced by the chairman as an "expert in publicity" and he spoke on "Publicity as related to a Chamber of Commerce." He stressed the importance of newspaper publicity and suggested that it be handled by local reporters in the form of news stories. The policy of the Boston Chamber of Commerce was commended, which looks out for the social welfare of the community as well as its business interests. The speaker was of the opinion that open discussion of town business by members of such an organization would serve to keep men in closer touch with such affairs and help them in framing wise policies. He said that Andover might be a small town but that it was by no means backward and that the well-kept-up streets along Main street augured well for a successful business organization and generous offering of his services in any capacity where they might be needed.

Temporary organization of an Andover Chamber of Commerce was then effected with W. Dudley Yates as temporary chairman and Harry Hyland, temporary secretary. A committee to organize a membership drive was appointed as follows: Samuel P. Hulme, William C. Crowley, and Paul Simcoe. Members of the publicity committee are David Coutts, George A. Christie and Mrs. Mary F. Edmonds.

It was decided to assess merchants $15 and individuals $5 as an annual fee. Samuel Resnik, John F. O'Connell and Charles J. Francis, together with the temporary president and secretary were chosen a committee to prepare a program of work and form plans for a method of operation, a report to be given at the next meeting.

A standing vote of thanks to Mr. Robey and Mr. O'Connell was proposed and unanimously passed. The meeting was adjourned to Thursday evening, October 19.

K. of C. Officers Installed.

Officers of the local order of Knights of Columbus for the ensuing year were installed by District Deputy John Cavin of Haverhill last evening at a meeting held in the K. of C. rooms on Park street. After the installation exercises Mr. Cavin gave an interesting address.

The officers installed were as follows: Grand Knight, F. S. McDonald; Deputy Grand Knight, John C. Fickles; Chancellor, John L. Dugan; Warden, James W. Hinch; financial secretary, Timothy J. Mahoney; recording secretary, William Harnedy; treasurer, John J. Kelley; inside sentinel, Edward Eldred; outside sentinel, Joseph Fallon; trustee, Bernard L. McDonald.

South Church Notes

The Autumn Leaf Fair and Harvest Supper at the South Church on Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock continuing through the evening will engage the interest of many Andover women either as providers or as patrons of this social event. The King's Daughters are to display a large quantity of useful and fancy articles for sale in the afternoon; but in the evening their work will be supplemented by the A. P. C. Sorority of young women who will spread a supper for all who come. This is the Harvest Supper for the whole parish and its friends.

The Church Night which is in preparation for Wednesday evening October 11, will be a new method of inaugurating the season's work for all departments of the South Church. The heads of eight separate functions of the church will make brief outlines of the work proposed for the year and this mass meeting of all departments will express the unity of purpose that prevails the church. A special feature will be a display of Bibles and other religious reading matter on a collection — during the afternoon and evening.

Refreshments and social features are added to the program. Rev. Alfred V. Bliss who will speak at the Sunday morning service is the Field Secretary of the American Missionary Association as the successor of Rev. George H. Guterson, the well known Andover man who retired from this work last spring.

Moving Pictures Help Woman's Auxiliary

Moving picture lovers were given a treat Wednesday afternoon and evening when by special arrangement "The Heart of Maryland" was shown on the screen. The picture was put on as a special favor to the American Legion Auxiliary of Andover, Mrs. Freeman Abbott's team being in charge. One third of the receipts was turned over to the auxiliary.

Plans for Further Developments at Phillips Academy

At a recent meeting of the Board of Trustees of Phillips Academy plans for the new building prepared by Guy Lowell, in collaboration with Charles Platt of New York City, were submitted and approved, though some technical details are still to be worked out. Both for reasons of economy and purpose of harmony it was agreed that the recommendation of the New York building committee should be adopted and that the new building should be almost wholly of brick with a stone portico and wooden pillars. It is expected that the foundations for this building will be well under way before snow falls and the work on the structure can be continued throughout the entire year.

The location of the Case memorial building or cage, as it has been commonly, though inappropriately called, involved a long and careful discussion. The New York members of the Trustees had come to Andover the day before the meeting in order to examine in person and at close range all possible sites under consideration. When the Trustees met with the architect, therefore, it was with the very clear understanding on the part of all present of the numerous problems involved and the various advantages of the location under consideration. Until very recently it had been felt that the building should be located in immediate contact with the gymnasium and hence from necessity on either the east or west side. The former involved the possibility of the presence of a building that would overshadow other buildings in the vicinity and would certainly not add to the artistic beauty of its immediate surroundings. The latter involved a heavy expense of grading, the relocation of Highland Road, with the necessity of encroaching seriously on Brothers Field, and because of the grading a disagreeably high wall projecting itself to the very edge of the road or almost onto the field. Continued discussion of these sites only led to the conclusion that neither could ever be regarded as wholly satisfactory.

A further study of the possibilities of Brothers Field itself led the Trustees to concur in the opinion that the building could be located somewhere in the vicinity of the southwest corner, on the edge of the field itself, just across Highland Road, and in such a way as to render it easily accessible from the gymnasium and with no serious damage to the field. The location would involve the shifting of the present football field either to the north or the east, but it is felt that that could be accomplished with comparatively little difficulty. The Trustees are unanimous in the opinion that the location finally decided upon offers, from almost every point of view, advantages which could hardly be found elsewhere. As plans for the building have been drawn and tentatively approved the work of construction will begin just as soon as the present football season is ended and will be continued through the winter months. The exact location will be determined after further study of the locality has been made by the architect and landscape gardener.

The final matter discussed at the meeting was that relating to the number and character of the chimneys for the memorial tower. Mr. Frateicher, who has devoted most of the past summer to a personal investigation and study of chimneys already installed in this country and in Canada, recommended strongly the purchase of an English carillon. Whether the funds at the disposal of the Trustees will permit the extra expense resulting from the duties charged on imported bells or whether possibly a way can be found to secure the bells free of duty, as was done in the case of recently installed bells at Gloucester, Mass., remains to be determined. Since the completion of the tower itself is not dependent upon an early decision in the matter of the chimneys, the Trustees are agreed that further and more careful study should be given the whole question. One thing appears to be certain, and that is that the bells finally installed will be in every way in keeping with the significance and purpose of the tower itself and with the finest traditions of the school.

The Trustees have lately made a purchase of a large portion of land just south of and immediately adjoining the present running track. The purpose of this land is for playing fields for club athletics.

The tract contains about thirty-two acres of land and all will be used for fields and tennis courts excepting a narrow strip bordering on the main highway. This portion will be sold to private interests for the development of building sites.

At present a number of farm buildings are situated at different locations on the property and while some will be removed, the majority will be used as shelters for the power mowers and homes.

A professor had a class in English composition, and was teaching them the intricacies of punctuation. "Now, I would like you to consider this sentence," he said, "and then tell me how you would punctuate it. 'A lady was passing along the street, smiling pleasantly.'"

The pause was merely momentary. Briskly came this suggestion from a member of the class:

"What about a dash after the lady, sir?"

The first sawmill within the Arctic Circle will soon be established at Herschel Island at the mouth of the Mackenzie River. The engine accompanying the mill is of the two-cycle kind, without carburetor or ignition, and can be run on fish oil or crude petroleum from the Fort Norman wells.

Good-bye steam shovel, good-bye cement mixer. No more will the din of your machinery, the clang and smoke of your engines, the rattle of your chains, or the churning cement disturb our working hours.

All the week the cement mixer has turned out numberless buckets of its product along the east side of Main street below Chestnut, bringing up with a flourish at its goal, the crossing from Lindsay's market to Campion's corner, on Thursday night. The recipe for its concoctions seemed to be 2 measures of sand, 4 measures of small stones and 2 bags of cement, the "measures" being wheelbarrows.

One day an inquisitive dog barely escaped being lifted with the scoop and completing the mixture of "sticks and stones and puppy dog's bones" such as the childish doggerel says small boys are made of.

The new curbing in front of the Town hall is in position and the old elm has disappeared both root and branch. Upper Main street is cleared of all the debris of construction and electric cars can as far down as Punched avenue on Wednesday.

Now only the laying of a short stretch of paving stones with a top layer of cement and the $100,000 job on Main street will easily be done by Saturday night if the fine weather holds. We are told that in this case, the happy contractor will be able to attend church Sunday morning in a model of sartorial elegance at the expense of the man who thought it couldn't be done.

Throughs Visit Old Convict Ship at Boston

No exhibit placed before the Boston public has ever attracted such vast crowds and created so great a sensation as the famous old British felon ship "Success," now anchored at Warren Bridge. Thousands of persons are visiting her daily. She is open to the public from 10 a.m. to 11 p.m. Sundays as well as week days.

The ancient, romantic-looking yellow hulk, decorated with the black broad arrows of the British penal system was viewed last Sunday by more than 10,000 men, women and children.

The "Success," now the oldest ship afloat, began her long career as an East India merchantman. Later she was the flagship of the infamous felon fleet which carried more than 165,000 men and women from the British Isles to penal servitude in the Antipodes. Still later she was used as a receiving prison for the Australian coast, first for men, then for women. Finally, she was sunk in Sydney harbor by patriotic Australians, who wished to wipe the last reminder of the brutal and inhuman convict system from the face of the earth.

And at last she was raised, passed into the hands of an American, Captain D. H. Smith, a native of Indiana, and came to this country under her own sail, crossing the Atlantic after ninety-six never-to-be-forgotten days.

Aboard her, in addition to a fine collection of medieval torture instruments, including the famous "Iron Maiden," are preserved in their original state the cells and dungeons occupied by the unfortunate sent to the ends of the earth for trivial offenses. The spacious officers' quarters form a museum of rare original prison records on the lower decks, where the cells are located, may be seen the implements used to punish and to confine the thousands of unhappy wretches sent overseas aboard the historic craft.

Not the least interesting of these are the notorious "Black Holes" in which scores of prisoners went insane or died in solitary confinement; the condemned cells, last stopping places of those later hanged from the yard arms, and the "Tiger" Den, where the most refractory prisoners were herded together to maim and murder each other. Many of the cells are today occupied by life-like wax representations of the most famous of the hundreds transported and confined aboard.

The vessel is lighted at night by hundreds of electric bulbs. Many visitors find in her solid Burmese teak timbers and hand construction alone, material for hours' inspection.

A corps of expert guides conduct visitors through the famous old boat explaining in detail her history and the many interesting exhibits aboard her.

Have you purchased your ticket for the supper at the South Church tonight? The A. P. C. Sorority will serve the following menu at 35 cents per plate: roast loaf, scalloped potatoes, beet salad, coffee, rolls ice cream and cake. Come and bring the family.

Wedding

MOODY—JARVIS

The marriage of Dwight L. Moody, one of the well known and popular ex-service men of this town, and Miss Ruth Jarvis of Central Park, Long Island, New York took place Saturday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock at the home of the bride, which was very prettily decorated for the occasion.

The bride was attired in white crepe de Chine and wore a tulle veil held by a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. Earl Moody of Ballardvale, a brother of the groom was best man. The ceremony was performed by Rev. George R. Moody, father of the bridegroom.

The double ring service was used. Miss Helen Moody, sister of the bridegroom, played the wedding march besides singing several solos.

After the ceremony a reception was held and a wedding supper served. The happy couple left on a wedding trip through Canada, and on their return they will visit Mr. Moody's parents in Ballardvale.

Parcels Post Stolen

No new developments have come to light concerning the mail robbery at the Ballardvale station on last Friday night, although the postal inspectors are working on the case.

The theft took place after the parcel post mail had been left at the station at 6:30 o'clock. When John Hunnewell, the station agent went for the bag he found it empty. The loss was immediately told to Postmaster Roy M. Haynes, who started an investigation.

WORK FOR RAINBOW FETE

The chairman of the committee earnestly desires that all persons who are to contribute fancy articles will leave them with her at 15 Morton street at their earliest convenience.

The White Elephant table has already been promised some choice articles and many more will be collected in the next few weeks. Anyone having white elephants to contribute should communicate with the chairman of the committee, Mrs. Douglas Donald, 119-M. She will be assisted by Mrs. Dana W. Clark, Mrs. Howard Gerish, and Miss Martha Smith. This table is in charge of the Shawheen Village Women's club.

Sweets will be sold from a table in charge of the Tuesday club under the chairmanship of Mrs. Henry A. Bodwell. She will have as her assistants Mrs. P. B. Whittemore and Mrs. Chester Abbott.

Two meetings of the committee on the table for domestic articles have been held and plans for their work are well matured. Women of the South, Free, Baptist and Christ churches will assist in supporting this table led by Mrs. Frederic G. Moore as chairman. The sub-committee from the Baptist church consists of Mrs. Albert W. Lowe, Mrs. Fred A. Swanton, Mrs. Clare Norton and Mrs. Ellis Hudson; Free church, Mrs. David Lindsay, Mrs. Edwin Perry and Mrs. Alexander Sherl; Christ church, Mrs. Arthur Boutwell, South church, Mrs. Frank Kendall, Mrs. H. Moorhead, Mrs. John Towrie, Mrs. Claude M. Fues, Mrs. Mitchell Johnson, Mrs. William A. Trow, Mrs. Charles T. Dole, Mrs. Augustus P. Thompson, Mrs. Cornelius A. Wood, Mrs. Harry Tyer, Mrs. Addison LeBoutillier, and Miss Grace P. S. Clemons. Gifts of Canterbury bells, gladioli, raspberry bushes, begonias, oxalis and coleus have already been promised and additional contributions of dahlia bulbs or clumps of perennials will be gratefully received.

Mrs. Charles D. Thompson is planning a tempting array of fancy boxes, bags and baskets. Other members of this committee are Mrs. Donald Appleton, Mrs. Alden Foss, Mrs. F. W. H. Stott, Miss Marion Selden and Miss May Bartlett.

The grab bag will be in charge of Miss Margaret Curran, assisted by Miss Irene Odlin and Miss Margaret French.

On Thursday and Friday Mrs. Arthur W. Hall will be responsible for the food table assisted by Mrs. Harold Austin, Mrs. Ralph Hadley, Mrs. Austin P. Wade and Mrs. Frank Buttrick. On Saturday Mrs. M. E. Dalton will assume charge, making a feature of baked beans and brown bread.

An attractive tea table will be arranged by women from the Church of Christ in Phillips Academy, members of the committee including, Mrs. John C. Phillips, Mrs. Matthew S. McCurdy, Mrs. F. E. Newton and Miss Julia Twichell.

A group of Junior Camp Fire girls is to have a separate booth for the sale of sweet cider.

The solicitors who will help Mrs. Hall are: Mrs. Fred L. Winkley, Mrs. Fred G. Cheney, Mrs. J. E. Campion, Mrs. John H. Flint, Mrs. William C. Ellis, Mrs. Joseph Higginson, Mrs. B. F. Hatch, Mrs. P. W. Partridge, Mrs. Herbert Carter and Miss Alice McTernan.

An additional team of solicitors under Mrs. Edgar G. Holt will work to provide food for Friday's sale.

The members of the committee which will represent the Andover Grange are J. L. Playdon, E. Burk Thornton, Ira B. Hill and Chester D. Abbott. They will be assisted by the following sub-committee: Mr. and Mrs. R. N. C. Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Carter, Mrs. Nellie C. Moor, Mrs. Lizzie Jenkins, Mrs. E. Burk Thornton, Miss Elba Peterson, Miss Charlotte Hill and William B. Corlies.

The dances for the End of the Rainbow to be given the last week in October are now in active rehearsal under the direction of Miss Vivian Taylor.

The figures of the little ballet are: Winds: Helen Saunders, Ruth Perry, Edith Johnson, Margaret Buchanan.

Sun Beams: Mary Beer, Frances MacTernan, Ruby Laurie, Carol Tate, Ruth Scannell, Ruth Hale.

Rain Drops: Helen Black, May McGrath, Margaret Sparks, Eleanor Jenkins, Pauline Burt, Mary Partridge, Elizabeth Beer.

Colors: Ann Ness, Sadie MacLeish, Jean MacLeish, Etta Brown, Elizabeth Valentine.

For the Dance of Dolls Mr. Chase has composed the music; a vase for the French Dolls, Margaret Laurie and Marion Burridge; a cakewalk for the Black Dinahs, Helen Buttrick and Emily Bullock; for the Rag Dolls, Ruth Bodwell and Elizabeth Perry; and characteristic music for the two Jumping Jacks, Annette Anderson and May Valentine. The Battered and Abused Doll will sing about a doll "who had a pain in her sawdust."

Some Toy Soldiers are to add to the cast. The Valse Valseka by William Henry Chase to which the Rainbow is to be danced, is played by the Symphony Orchestra at the Pop Concerts.

Violin Lessons

Music is a comfort to the lonely. Joseph Emile Daudelin, former pupil of the famous Paris Conservatoire, at the Briggs-Allen School, Saturdays; other days at steiner Hall, Boston.

Punchard 6—Stoneham 0

Punchard High school opened its 1922 football season last Friday afternoon by defeating Stoneham High to the tune of 6 to 0 on the Pomeroy street grounds, Stoneham. The game started at 4.20 p. m., with a good attendance of football enthusiasts, who were anxious to witness the opening game of the school gridiron season.

During the last few weeks Coach Lovely has rounded up an excellent team and has one of the fastest teams in the making that Punchard has had for a few years.

Joe Stevenson, a veteran of last year's squad, was in evidence throughout the game and lived up to his reputation as a ground-gainer.

The strength of Punchard's line was tested to the limit by Stoneham's backs but it stood the test and the result of the game shows that it will soon be ready to face all comers. They certainly held up well under the heavy onslaught of the Stoneham team. Punchard also showed her real strength in the back field with "Banty" Pratt, Arthur Stevenson, Frederickson and Joe Stevenson. They are a trio that is hard to stop when it comes to ground gaining. Haynes and Dyer did not have much chance in the game to show their merits but when the backs came their way they did some fine tackling. Both Souter and Alley led the team in the best manner possible.

The day was a little warm for the game but nevertheless the men were on their toes all through the contest.

Stoneham high turned out in loyal numbers the attendance numbering about three or four hundred. Stoneham opened the conflict by kicking to the visitors, A. Stevenson, "Tubby's" brother, getting the pigskin on his own 30-yard line and running it back 15 yards. "Tubby's" headlong advance for the next three plays struck a chill into the Stoneham spectators when he aggregated 45 yards, but on the fourth attempt, the ambitious line smasher fumbled the ball, and Stoneham got its first chance on its own 20-yard mark. Failing in three tries, Vorbeau, Fallon and Kingsley carrying the ball, Stoneham had to punt. Then followed a see-saw battle with Andover getting the better of the argument in yardage. Half time found both teams scrambling about on the Stoneham 25-yard line, with the ball in Punchard's possession.

So many substitutions were made in the first half that the score lost count long before intermission, but the second period opened with both teams in their original lineups. Punchard kicked off. Stoneham lost the ball on downs, and the visitors then started the march that resulted in a touchdown. A series of line plunges, two successful passes, and a 15-yard end run by Souter, brought the ball to Stoneham's 10-yard line. "Tubby" Stevenson pushed it up five yards and C. Frederickson, who had gone in for "Banty" Pratt at left half in the third period, rushed over tackle for the score. Souter used a pass on the try for point, which was spoiled by Jackson.

Andover's appearance last Friday added to a week more of practice, insures a great fight for the Punchard squad next Friday when Coach Lovely's crew will meet the stocky Methuen eleven at Methuen.

Kings Daughters and Sons to Hold Convention in Groveland

The Essex County Association of The King's Daughters and Sons will hold the annual convention at the Congregational church in Groveland next Tuesday, October 10.

Miss Jennie Hinchcliffe of this town is one of the speakers. The morning session opens at 10.30; the afternoon session at 1.30. Lunch will be served during the noon hours by the Groveland Circle at 50 cents a plate.

Members of the Order who attended the biennial at Burlington, one of whom was Miss Madeleine Hayes of this town will give reports of that convention.

An interesting and inspiring meeting is promised. Those who go from Andover can take the 9.35 a. m. train at South Lawrence Trolleys leave the Haverhill station for Groveland on the hour, and the half hour. The stop at Pike's Corner is very near the Church. A good train for returning leaves Haverhill at 3.06 p. m.

The day had aged him; he spoke like a man. His very voice came gruffly. But she saw nothing, softened to him, yielded, was ready to take his regret that they had not gone on.

"Well, I came for one thing," said Bobby. "To tell you that I couldn't stand for your wanting me to lie today. Why, Di—I hate a lie. And now tonight—" He spoke, his code almost beautifully. "I'd rather," he said, "they had never let us see each other than to lose you the way I've lost you now."

"Bobby!"

"It's true. We mustn't talk about it."

"Bobby! I'll go back and tell them all."

"You can't go back," said Bobby. "She stood staring after him. She heard some one coming and she turned toward the house, and met Cornish leaving."

"Miss Di," he cried, "if you're going to elope with anybody, remember it's with me!"

Her defense was ready—her laughter rang out so that the departing Bobby might hear.

When Di had gone upstairs, Ina said to Lulu in a manner of cajoling confidence:

"Sister," she rarely called her that—"why did you and Di have the black bag?"

So that after all it was a relief to Lulu to hear Dwight ask casually:

"By the way, Lulu, haven't I got some mail somewhere about?"

"There are two letters on the parlor table," Lulu answered. To Ina she added: "Let's go in the parlor."

Dwight lighted the gas. "Better turn down the gas just a little," said he, tirelessly.

Lulu handed him the two letters. He saw Ninian's writing and looked up, said "A-ha!" and held it while he leisurely read the advertisement of dental furniture, his Ina reading over his shoulder. "A-ha!" he said again, and with designed deliberation turned to Ninian's letter. "An epistle from my dear brother Ninian." The words failed, as he saw the unsealed flap.

"You opened the letter?" he inquired incredulously. Fortunately he had no climax of furious calm for high occasions. All had been used on small

"A-ha!" said Dwight, after a pause, "an ungrateful woman." He opened the letter, saw the clipping, the avowal, with its facts. "A-ha!" said he. "So after having been absent with my brother for a month, you find that you were not married to him." Lulu spoke her exceeding triumph. "You see, Dwight," she said, "he told the truth. He had another wife. He didn't just leave me." Dwight instantly cried: "But this seems to me to make you considerably worse off than if he had." "Oh, no," Lulu said serenely. "No. Why," she said, "you know how it all came about. He—he was used to thinking of his wife as dead. If he hadn't—hadn't liked me, he wouldn't have told me. You see that, don't you?"

Dwight laughed. "That your apology?" he asked.

She said nothing.

"Look here, Lulu," he went on, "this is a bad business. The less you say about it the better, for all our sakes—you see that, don't you?"

"I want the people to know the truth," Lulu said.

"But it's nobody's business but our business! I take it you don't intend to sue Ninian?"

"Sue him? Oh no!"

"Then, for all our sakes, let's drop the matter. Tell you, Lulu, here are three of us. Our interests are the same in this thing—only Ninian is our relative and he's nothing to you now. Is he?"

"Why, no," said Lulu in surprise.

"Very well. Let's have a vote. Your snap judgment is to tell this disgraceful fact broadcast. Mine is, least said, soonest mended. What do you say, Ina—considering Di and all?"

"My poor, poor sister!" Ina said. She struck together her little plump hands. "Oh, Dwight—when I think of it! What have I done—what have we done that I should have a good, kind, loving husband—be so protected, so loved, when other women . . . Darling!" she sobbed, and drew near to Lulu. "You know how sorry I am—we all are."

Lulu stood up. Her white shawl slipped to the floor. Her hands were stiffly joined.

"Then," she said, "give me the only thing I've got—that's my pride. My pride—that he didn't want to get rid of me."

They stared at her. "What about my pride?" Dwight called to her, as across great distances. "Do you think I want everybody to know my brother did a thing like that?"

"You can't help that," said Lulu. "But I want you to help it. I want you to promise me that you won't shame us like this before all our friends."

"You want me to promise what?" "I want you—I ask you," Dwight said with an effort, "to promise me that you will keep this, with us—a family secret."

"No!" Lulu cried. "No. I won't do it! I won't do it! I won't do it!" It was like some crude chant, knowing only two tones. She threw out her hands, her wrists long and dark on her blue skirt.

Our Local Industry

The Andover telephone exchange is a local industry. The plant is permanently rooted here. It represents many thousands of dollars invested in poles, wire, cables, conduits, switchboards, etc.—dollars that would shrink to fractional currency if this delicate and costly plant were not maintained to give efficient telephone service.

The exchange's welfare is to a large degree dependent upon the welfare of Andover. As Andover prospers, the exchange prospers. More business for Andover means more telephone business, and more telephone business means more workers to install and operate telephones—workers who largely are local residents, whose expenditures help local business.

Our Company is a part of the great Bell System which connects 75,000 cities and towns in the United States. But our success as an exchange—as a unit of this great System—is judged by what we do here in Andover and for Andover.

We have every incentive of selfish or civic interest, therefore, to work for efficient telephone service for Andover, not only that our work may receive official recognition and reward, but also that our friends and neighbors may be well served, and that these local industries whose patronage furnishes us our bread and butter may receive our hearty co-operation.

It is in this spirit we express a desire to receive suggestions that will make the service of the Andover Central Office a matter of even greater local pride.

F. G. CHENEY, Manager.

"You Opened the Letter?" He inquired incredulously.

occasions. "You opened the letter?" came in a tone of no deeper horror than "You picked the flower"—once put to Lulu.

She said nothing. As it is impossible to continue looking indignantly at some one who is not looking at you, Dwight turned to Ina, who was horror and sympathy, a nice half and half.

"Your sister has been opening my mail," he said.

"But, Dwight, if it's from Ninian"

"It is my mail," he reminded her. "She had asked me if she might open it. Of course I told her no."

"Well," said Ina practically, "what does he say?"

"I shall open the letter in my own time. My present concern is this disregard of my wishes. Why did you do it?"

Lulu smiled faintly and shook her head.

"Dwight," said Ina, reasonably, "she knows what's in it and we don't. Hurry up."

Community Services

The first Community service of the Fall season was held last Sunday evening in Post Office hall. Rev. C. W. Henry of Christ church was in charge and took for his text "For He Knew What Was in Man," (John 2: 25). Thomas Shapcott was the soloist for the evening and pleasingly rendered "God Knows It All." Miss Isabel Peters assisted at the piano.

For the information of those who have moved into the Village during the summer it might be mentioned that the Community Services are held every Sunday evening at 7 o'clock in Post Office hall. The services are undenominational and an endeavor is made to have the speakers on each succeeding Sunday from the different denominations. All residents of the Village are cordially invited to attend and take part in these services.

The list of speakers for the month of October is as follows: October 8, Rev. C. W. Henry; October 15, Dr. Platticher of Phillips academy; October 22, Rev. Harry Lownd, at present a resident of Andover; October 29, Rev. Arthur S. Wheelock, pastor of the Free church.

At the meeting on October 15, Dr. Platticher will speak on church music. He is interested in forming a choral society in the Village and will hold a meeting after the services for that purpose.

On Friday evening at 7.30 at the home of Mrs. George H. Winslow, North Main street, the executive committee of the Community Services will hold a meeting. The committee consists of Mrs. George H. Winslow, Mrs. George H. Winslow, Mrs. Donald Carter, Benjamin Babb, George E. Murray and Charles Ide.

WOMEN'S CLUB OPENS

Miss S. Agnes Donham Makes Suggestions For Family Budget. Miss MacKnight Gives Group of Songs.

The Shawsheen Women's club held its first meeting of the fall season on Monday evening in Balmoral hall, with a very large number of members present. The names of several new members were announced by the secretary, Mrs. Alexander Morrison as chairman of the children's party held last June read a report of that affair and Mrs. Frank Bartlett reported on the food sale and dance held recently.

The club has been called upon by the Andover Guild to take charge of the "White Elephant" table at the bazaar to be held on October 26, 27 and 28. The president, Mrs. Donald Carter, has asked the club to make as good a showing as possible as this is the first outside work that the club has been called upon to do. The following committee was appointed to take charge: Mrs. Douglas Donald, chairman; Mrs. Dana W. Clark, Mrs. George Gerrish and Miss Martha Smith.

Mrs. Percy Holt, chairman of the civics committee, suggested the forming of a current events club saying that a course of lectures could be arranged thereby keeping members in close touch with happenings of the day. Mrs. Holt and Mrs. Dana W. Clark were appointed a committee to look into the matter and see if a sufficient number were interested to warrant the formation of such a club. In the event that it is formed it will be open to anyone wishing to join.

It was voted to join the Massachusetts State Federation of Women's clubs.

Miss Virginia MacKnight sang a group of songs that were much enjoyed by all present. Her selections were as follows: "Farewell to Summer," "Noel Johnson," "Lullaby," "Cyril Scott," "I Backo," "Luigi Arioli."

Miss Martha Smith assisted at the piano. Miss S. Agnes Donham was the speaker of the evening and chose as her subject "The Proverbial Housewife." Miss Donham's talk was most interesting and was much appreciated by the members. She spoke chiefly on keeping a budget as the best means of saving money and living within one's means. The keeping of a budget is an easy matter once it is put into force and the housewife will find it interesting as well as useful. The expenditures of the family must be divided into parts and a certain amount of money allowed each month for each part. The housewife should live within this amount and if it is necessary to spend more on one part than was planned it should be saved from another.

After the meeting refreshments were served by the following hostesses: Mrs. Albert J. Moore, Mrs. J. R. Mosher, Mrs. Arthur W. Morrison, Mrs. Robert Nelson, Mrs. Sidney S. Paine, Mrs. Joseph A. Miller, Mrs. Alexander Morrison, Mrs. Frederick Morrison, Mrs. George B. Murray, Mrs. Alexander Noble, Mrs. Elizabeth Parker and Miss Margaret McLay.

The next meeting will be held Monday evening, November 6.

GAS NEAR HEART IS VERY DANGEROUS

Gas around the heart is not only painful and distressing. It often is the warning of conditions, which if not corrected may become dangerous. Many times the gas is caused by derangement of the digestive tract. Food is not digested properly. Gas forms and presses around the heart, interfering with its action. In acute indigestion this often results seriously. One or two Jaques' Little Wonder Capsules give quick relief. They assist in the proper assimilation of food.

SHAWSHEEN A.A. FIELD DAY

Track Meet, Soccer Contest and Marathon at Formal Opening of Balmoral Playing Field Tomorrow.

Everything is in readiness for the mammoth field day and track events that will mark the formal opening of the new running track and athletic field in Shawsheen Village Saturday afternoon. Athletes from all over the state are looking forward to the occasion with a view to participating as some of the most valuable and beautiful cups, medals and other prizes will be awarded the winners in the many events to be held. The entire affair is under the direction of the Shawsheen Athletic Association.

The occasion of the field day and track events is the formal opening of the new running track and athletic field, located off Balmoral street, in the rear of the Balmoral Spa and beside the gracefully winding Shawsheen river. The site is ideal in every way and the throngs that will flock to the spectacular races will readily place their stamp of approval on the entire grounds. For weeks the track and athletic field have been in course of preparation for Saturday's events. The track is a quarter mile, oval in form, entirely encircling the baseball and football field and as level as a billiard table. The track is amply wide for any number of contestants and has been rolled and made firm. It is one of the finest cinder tracks and athletic fields in the entire East and promises to be a Mecca for athletic admirers and contestants.

On the west side of the track and running parallel with it will be built a beautiful grandstand of adequate capacity. Around the cinder track is a cement curbing about two feet in height which will act as a retainer for the earth, leaving the field to be flooded for skating in the winter. The entire athletic field will be enclosed by a wire fence. The entrances will be at what was formerly Burnham road and a beautiful and imposing gateway is being erected there as well as another near the tennis courts.

The track and field events will be under the direction of the N. E. A. U. A. A. and officials of that organization will have charge. Entries for the various contests can be made with Irving Pirie, Shawsheen Village. Some of the greatest athletes in the entire East are expected to participate and some exciting contests are expected by the thousands of lovers of sporting events who have planned to attend Saturday afternoon.

The afternoon's events will begin with a Marathon race of five miles starting from Methuen Square.

The route will be straight down Broadway, from Methuen into Lawrence by Essex and Amesbury streets, over the Central Bridge, Merrimack to South Broadway into Shawsheen Village.

The runners will race one mile on the new cinder track in finishing.

The other events will be as follows: 100-yd. dash (closed); preliminary; 100-yd. dash (open); shot put (open); half mile (open); 30-yd. dash race for department heads; handicap; tug-of-war; 220-yd. race (closed); 220-yd. dash (open); boys' race under 12 years; girls' race under 12 years; 220-yd. dash (open) final; 220-yd. dash (open); 440-yd. dash (closed); 440-yd. dash (open); high jump (open); broad jump (open); relay race (closed); 100-yd. dash (closed) final; 100-yd. dash (open) final.

There will also be a soccer football game between Shawsheen and Abbot Worsted teams and a baseball game between Washington Mill No. 1, Champion team of the American Woolen Company inter-mill league of Lawrence and the Mantomestown team which won the championship of the Providence Mill nines of the inter-mill league of the American Woolen Company plants in that city.

The value of the prizes to be awarded the winners is as follows:

Marathon (5 miles)—first, $25; second, $15; third, $10.
100 yards (closed)—first, $10, second, $7.50; third, $5.00.
100 yards (open), first, $15; second, $10; third, $5.

Shawsheen—General Electric

The Shawsheen soccer team met the General Electric on last Saturday on Balmoral field, the former winning by the score of 3 to 0.

Lowe started the ball rolling and Shawsheen was the first to make headway but Lowe was well stopped by Coulthard in front. The General Electric got away where Smith and Faulkner on the left flank took break through only to find Caldwell well defending with a nice return. Play travelled quickly from end to end, and the Shawsheen forwards made desperate efforts to break through, but found Forsythe, Coulthard and McLeish safe defenders. Deyermund had a good try that only missed; nice play by Haddon, Skea, Deyermund and Lowe found the centre forward driving for the goal. With the goalie apparently beaten, the ball struck the upright, rebounded across the goal mouth, and thence out of play. McNeice and McKay were not conspicuous on the left where Faulkner tested Deyermund with a good shot, the goalie clearing. It was a really nice play and a good save.

The Shawsheen team commenced to press with a vengeance where Forsythe was peppered for a time and defended his lines in elegant fashion. Try as they would, the Shawsheen players were unable to break down the barrier. When it was not Coulthard and McLeish, it was the mighty Forsythe that loomed up so big between the sticks.

The Electric at last cleared their lines and a movement well worked on the left found Smith shooting for Deyermund to save at the expense of a fruitless corner. Both teams showed effects of the heat. The G. E.'s pressed and Bailey tried a shot that sailed wide of the mark and just before half time Clark got in a dandy shot that Deyermund had all he could do to keep out from under the bar. A little later half time was called with the score sheet blank.

Ostend rested the second half and the centre was early conspicuous but the moment he threatened, found himself bottled up by Haddon who was playing a great spoiling game and always had the ball in his opponents. It was at this stage that the Shawsheen goal came almost within a scintilla of being lowered, as from a shot by Smith of the General Electric which was placed well in for the Shawsheen goalie to make a wild swing at the ball. He came pretty close to missing and the Shawsheen boys breathed more freely when the ball was finally cleared.

The Shawsheen boys now came in to the goal and by some good work on the part of Coleman, Haddon and Nichol the men in front were constantly in possession which began to tell the story. Haddon fired in a long shot that went wide, two minutes later he placed a nice header that found Forsythe making a grand save. At last the Shawsheen efforts were rewarded when Gordon placed nicely to Lowe for the centre to head over to Deyermund which found the inside right ready to smash the ball in the net for the opening score. Amidst loud cheering the Shawsheen boys were now fighting for more. Dougherty making a nice try that came pretty close, Skea beat out Coulthard for once and drove in a good shot for the goalie to first out again to Skea, the winger shooting over the bar with a pocket drive.

Coulthard was now injured and had to be taken out of the game. The weakened General Electric, the left back having proven a tower of strength to his side. Skea got away on the right in great shape and from a nice centre Lowe beat the goalie with a nice header in the net, giving Shawsheen a good lead of two goals. The Shawsheen team was now all over the Lynn team and it could be seen that they were out for more goals. Haddon was always in the picture worrying the opposition that played such a big part. Skea and McKay combined cleverly on the right with the latter in a race for the ball fell short by inches as Forsythe gathered just in time. Lowe now forced himself through and fired in a great shot so that Forsythe had all he could do to keep the ball out that went to the foot of Deyermund giving Shawsheen a lead of three goals. Time was called shortly after, Shawsheen running out deserved winner of a good clean game by three clear goals.

The score—Shawsheen 3 goals; General Electric 0—goals.
